When Forever 'Gon Come?

I'm beset, terror stricken, and shocked

The world is so corrupted, when will the madness stop?

It's so bad that when I go to rest my head

In the silence, all I think of is the things that can make me dead

But for information I'm far away from suicide

I love my life; I wouldn't take it away to see my family cry

Forever doesn't have to start whenever I may die, forget it

"Forever begins just because I thought about it"

I hope for Forever to be peaceful and tranquil

No gangs, neglectful parents, no one berserk.

Forever should consist of people who feel

No one heartless, careless, or hurt

Because I have a heart I don't want to see my peers in tears

Just because no one wants to hear how she feels

Yep, my sister had suicidal thoughts

Half of her wanted to die, half of her thought and fought

Through the trials and tribulations

We bonded as a family and grew through conversation

"United we stand and divided we fall"

We've worked through the problems; we've experienced it all

---

I want Forever to be here right now

So underachievers can succeed

So non-believers can believe

So villainous schemes can turn into positive dreams, but how

Maybe if we treat our women with more respect

Like checking out their minds, instead their bodies, we inspect

Maybe if the parents teach their children to be kids

Instead they're acting grown, getting pregnant, no discipline

Maybe if we loved one another and put the guns away

But right now the future victims are doomed not to see another day

And maybe, just maybe we'll treat each others as equals

But to be criticized for being light or dark in a life with no sequels!?

In my mind I know were far from Forever

Were only human, hopefully we can make a change for the better

The thoughts expressed on this paper was talked about with the dumb

So I'll write out how Forever got here, when Forever comes.
