Our world is full of violence, anger, hatred, bullying, and abuse.

We have all witnessed it, been a victim to it, and caused it.

It has been caused by people taking their anger out on others,

Putting people down to boost them selves up, and everyone spreading and starting rumors.

These types of violence has hurt so many people in so many ways so be the better person to step up and do the right thing.

Demonstrate kindness to others

Only say something nice or don't say anything at all

Take responsibility for your actions

Help those in need

Enjoy your life

With courage you can be the better person

Recognize others good traits

Intelligent minds discuss ideas, small minds discuss people

Tolerate differences

Everyone was created equal

Think before you act

Have patience

Include everyone

Nice is the way to act

Good people are a gift

Doing all of these things can make you a better person

You may not know it, but you could be bullying.

So be the better person and do the right thing.
